Internship Guidelines

Internship and Cooperative Education opportunities are supervised discipline-related work experiences that provide students with an intentional experiential learning strategy, an emphasis on professional development, performance assessments, and reflection and acknowledgment.

Students satisfy the Experiential Education – Internship and Cooperative education requirement.

Must an internship be paid?

We encourage compensating students for their contributions to your company. Pay may be determined by the employer.

Unpaid student employment will not violate the Fair Labor Standards Act if it is a training program.

the training should be similar to that given in a vocational setting, the experience is for the benefit of the student,

students do not do the work of a regular employee,
the site sponsor provides the training and receives no immediate advantage from the act students are not necessarily entitled to a job at the conclusion of the training period, and the site sponsor and student understand that the student is not entitled to wages for the
