Oral History Project FAQs

The University of New Haven Alumni Association's Oral History Project kicked off in January.

I received an email/postcard/phone call from a company asking for my personal information.

It's legitimate! We have partnered with PCI (also known as Publishing Concepts) to produce a book.

Does the University of New Haven benefit from this at all?

Yes, in a few different ways:

Updated Information - allows us to effectively communicate with and engage alumni

Legacy - preserves the history of our school

Pride - wearing apparel shows support and love for our school

How do I know my information will only be used for Oral History Project purposes?

PCI is committed to protecting your information. The names, addresses and information provided will be used for the project.

I would like to verify or update my information and share a story. How may I do this?

If you have received a postcard or an email with a telephone number, you may call the number provided.

Can I choose what information prints in the publication?

When you call to update your information, you can tell the representative if you prefer an
I updated my information but need some more time to think about what experience to share.
You can call back at any time to share your story.

I shared a story and the representative said I could send some photos. How do I do this?
You will receive an email with a link to upload up to two photos (black and white or color)

Can anyone purchase a book?

The University of New Haven Oral History Publication is available for sale only to University of New Haven students.

When will I receive my book?

The total duration of the Oral History Project is about 12 months. The project begins January 2019.

I ordered a book/package over the phone and would like to cancel my order. How do I do this?

Contact PCI's customer service helpdesk at 1-800-982-1590 and they will take care of this for you.
