Housing Options for International Graduate Students

Finding a comfortable place to live is always a source of concern for incoming graduate students.

On Campus Housing

The University of New Haven offers multiple options for graduate student housing. For information, visit the Office of International Student Services.

Off Campus Housing

Past graduate students have had success in finding off-campus apartments in the West Haven area.

Our Off Campus Living Guide provides information and resources for students in the West Haven area.

Connecting with other incoming students on social media is another way to find potential roommates.
