Submitting a Deposit for International Graduate Students

Please read the following information carefully before submitting your graduate enrollment deposit.

Graduate students who decide to enroll at the University of New Haven must submit a non-refundable enrollment deposit.

Do not pay your enrollment and/or housing deposit until you have definitively decided that you will be enrolling at the University of New Haven.

PLEASE NOTE

The deposit is non-refundable. It is also non-transferable to another semester. Please do not pay the deposit until you have been accepted for admission.

All domestic graduate applicants should submit their deposit as soon as they have decided to enroll at the University of New Haven.

The fall priority deadline for the graduate enrollment deposit is June 1. Students who pay the deposit after this date will be considered for admission on a space-available basis.

For students who are ready to enroll for the spring semester, it is strongly recommended that they submit their deposit by the fall deadline.

The enrollment deposit is not a fee and will be credited to your first tuition bill. For students enrolling in the fall semester, the deposit will be credited to your first tuition bill in the fall semester.
