The career expo also enabled students looking for internships to make important connections.

"University of New Haven students are very motivated ... I was especially glad to see so many students interested in behavioral analysis."

Tom McDonald, Enterprise Rent-A-Car

"The University's Career Development Center engages students early to help them transition from college to the workforce."

For Kayla Nemeth '23, the career expo enabled her to build her network, while ensuring that she was prepared for the workforce.

"I'm interested in behavioral analysis," she said. "Although I'm a psychology major, I was interested in behavioral analysis."
